Adopted by CLAP: 29/06/2000

Subject: ESR on materials – European Approval of Material

Question: May a European Approval of Material for a “material recognised as being safe to use before 29 November 1999”, be restricted to one or more material manufacturers?

Answer: No, see CLAP 106 - Guideline 9/3.
NOTE: If a material which is covered by an European Approval of Material is patented, or has a patent pending, this information shall be included in the European Approval of Material.
