

Directive 2014/68/EU*Adopted by CLAP : 29/03/2018Directive References: Annex I pt 3.4bSubject: ESR on manufacturing – Technical documentationQuestion: In the French version of Directive 2014/68/EU, does the term "documentation technique" (technical documentation) in point 3.4 b) of Annex I related to operating instructions have the same meaning as in the others parts of this Directive?Answer:

No, as confirmed by the English version which uses:

- the term "technical documents" in point 3.4 b) of Annex I to designate technical documents necessary for the understanding of the operating instructions,
- the term "technical documentation" for the documentation relating to conformity assessment and referred in Annex III.
