

Directive 2014/68/EUAdopted by CLAP : 26/11/2020Directive References: Article 2 5) Subject: Classification –Pressure accessory for products injectionQuestion: How to classify a device intended to inject or withdraw products from a process flow and composed in particular of an injection tube and a flange for fixing to the process piping?Answer: This device is a pressure accessory, classified according to the pressure PS and the DN of the fluid passage in the accessory and not the DN of the fixing flange.

See CLAP X060 - PED Orientation B-02 and CLAP X043 - PED Orientation A-40

Note: the flange is a component sized according to the piping for which it is intended.